

Ombuds Office

To: Whom It May Concern
From: Ombuds Office
Subject: The Ombudsperson and Academic Appeals

The Ombuds Office is available to students considering academic appeals. Its staff answer inquiries about appeal procedures and make referrals to appropriate University offices. The Office also provides an informal and impartial environment for open discussion, and confidentiality is maintained when asked to do so. Although the Ombudsperson does not participate in the formal academic appeals process, she helps students clarify issues and gives feedback on argument presentation.

You may schedule an appointment by calling 313-577-3487, or by sending an email to ombudsoffice@wayne.edu. All Ombuds correspondence is being forwarded to the Dean of Students Office at this time.
